

Bear Vs. Shark, Rich People Say Fuck Yeah Hey

3 pixels of color between you and the sun in the longest distance a rider approach and he sat and he spoke of the night clubs and homes and of shock and surprise that they let you through the gate.

Yes where all the buildings work and buildings stand around and where the framework sits still bolted slightly holding to the ground and when I'm in and out of work oh baby I'm in and out of town and when I'm in and out of jobs so much my feet don't touch the ground.

and he sat and he spoke of the night clubs and homes
and of shock and surprise that they let you through the gate.

Can't be the city cause the city never gets caught sleeping be the city cause the city never stays a-
be the city cause the city never let the water cool your water cool your water bitch you break take the burning toes and eardrums taking them right down to the lake and I said

I want to be a light you wear around your wrist.
