Bears, The, Aches And Pains

Bears, The
Rise And Shine
Aches And Pains
Over the river climbing up the hill
Like a digital reproduction
A frequency that kills
Women weep, dogs faint, the police beg
But she won't stop that feeling
Going up and down their legs

Aches and pains I swear some women have fangs I'll help you count your scars tomorrow

You spoke out loud when you should bite your lip Now the joke's on you my friend And you can't get it fixed Your zipper broke, she stole your socks, you lost your shirt She grabbed you by the nose And she rubbed it in the dirt

Over the river climbing up the hill Like a digital reproduction A frequency that kills The big old dog just lost his bone So now he begs But she won't stop that feeling Going up and down and up and down his leg
