(give me back) give me back my bed sheets
(give me back) give me back my sunday soul
(give me back) give me back my cup of tea
(give me back) give me back my self-control
Give me back my mouth and lips
It seems my face is gone
If i can't make my eyes comeback
I can't see where we went wrong
Give me back my mouth and lips
It seems my face is gone
If i can't make my eyes comeback
I can't see where we went wrong
Since you stole my arms and legs
I've been rolling around on the floor
Give me back my humanity
And i'll put my hands in yours
(give me back) give me back my bed sheets
(give me back) give me back my sunday soul
(give me back) give me back my cup of tea
(give me back) give me back my self-control
Give me back my mouth and lips
It seems my face is gone
If i can't make my eyes comeback
I can't see where we went wrong
Since you stole my arms and legs
I've been rolling around on the floor
Give me back my twenty-five cents
And your mama will give you yours
Give me back my mouth and lips
It seems my face is gone
If i can't make my eyes comeback
I can't see where we went wrong
Since you stole my arms and legs
I've been rolling around on the floor
Give me back my humanity
And i'll put my hands in yours
