

Beastie Boys, One Chance

I'm going to audition and I do not think I'll make it, but I do hope that they do not turn me down

I'm driving to the hill with auntie pat and uncle bill and I hope I will get a big huge role

I'm sittin here in polka dots waitin for my little spot where I will get one chance to shine

It happened after World War II when people played a litte game called soccer

St. Louis beat the English in an unexpected shock and so they went on to play Brazil but they lost

I waited for some three hours and then I heard my name so I rushed up to the front

They asked me a few questions like what's your age and background so I told them everything that was true

I told them I liked ribbons and pink's my favorite color and all they had to say was this: Thank you for time we will call you in a week or so, but only if you have done good

So I waited patiently for five days and then I got a little mad but I did not care that much

A few days later the phone rang "Your in my movie" said the guy. "Yes I said, "I love you lots I hope you do the same to me"

So I went on and filmed the movie and became very famous
