

Beat Happening, In Love With You Thing

i know i'm too shy
i know you can't read my mind this situation has got the makin' for some very serious heartbreakin' cause you're going away
you're going away
you're going away
you're going away
can't you see
i got this crazy, powerful in love with you thing my memory is bleedin' from how i spent this year opportunities slipped through my fingers now i've never met you and i never will

cause you're going away
oh-oh you're going away
oh-no you're going away
you're going away

no matter who you're with you show unhappiness if i could touch those parted lips your swinging little hips just gotta be kissed but you're going away
oh-oh you're going away
you're going away from me but i got this crazy powerful in love with you thing
