

Beat Happening, In My Memory

sit down and dream about the way the sun would shine on you the night falls
oh, so deep and blue

can't see the way
you used to look at me
can't hear your voice as it used to be cause it's gone out to sea
it's just a memory

things happen so fast
and i can't keep track
when i'm by myself
i find i'm looking back on all that's happened to me it's gone out to sea
it's just a memory
