

Beatsteaks, E-G-O

I'm taking my time, no need to rewind
It's starting out to be just fine
I crack a smile but act unkind
Advertising bigger times
Feed my ego, watch it grow and grow
Get you off my tracks
If you hit the sack, let it swing back
From the mind to the record, from the soul to the throat
From the heart to the matter, from the head to the toes
I've been hanging on the edge, I've been waiting on a friend
Among the lost and found

Dash down to the bar to go insane
I'll drench this city with your name
Guess we hit the promised land
We were out but now we're in
Kiss me, squeeze me, bite me, strike me
Use me, soothe me, hold me tightly
Take me, break me, feel me, steal me
Tap me, wrap me and fly me to the moon
I feel high as a knight on top of the world
