

Beatsteaks, Hail To The Freaks

hail to the freaks i can't get enough so the words hit the boy who can never be tough if somebody needs to compromise hashing out deals to cover lies

i predict a world that keeps you hanging on i've been around and around i'll come to weather the storm and set up the sun

so the words hit the boy who can never be tough saw a friend recently begging for sympathy been holding my breath and trying to accept another apology

so the words hit the boy who can never be tough somebody needs to speak out wise
calling you from the top of friction calling you from the wrong direction to set up the sun
