Bebe & Cece Winans, He's Always There

He's always there to brighten up your day Always there in every way When it's cold and dreary And your faith is growing weary You don't have to be afraid He's always there, just ask for what you need He'll be there if you believe Open up your heart, invite Him to come in He'll turn your life around And change you from within, waiting to care He's always there, ooh, ooh He's always there to comfort and provide He's always there right by your side To help you face tomorrow Through all the joy and sorrow His love you can't deny He's always there, just ask for what you need He'll be there if you believe Open up your heart, invite Him to come in and He'll turn your life around, hey Open up your heart, invite Him to come in and He'll turn your life around And he'll change you from within, waiting to care He's always there