

Bebo Norman, Can't Live Without You

You found me here
I'm barely breathing
You picked me up
But I'm still wanting more
You're the ocean deep
I'm in up to my knees
Wanting desperately to drown
You're the one bright part
Of my languid heart
You're the love
I cannot live without
I cannot live without
Please hold me close
I can't stop shaking
It's not for fear
My walls are breaking down
You're the ocean deep
I'm in up to my knees
Wanting desperately to drown
You're the one bright part
Of my languid heart
You're the love
I cannot live without
I can't live without
I can't live without You
I can't live without You
And I cannot live without You, oh
Can You hold on?
Can You hold on?
Can You hold on to me?
Because You hold everything, yeah
You're the ocean deep
I'm in up to my knees
Wanting desperately to drown
You're the one bright part
Of my languid heart
You're the love
I cannot live without
I can't live without You
I can't live without You
