Bebo Norman, Can't Live Without You

You found me here I'm barely breathing You picked me up But I'm still wanting more You're the ocean deep I'm in up to my knees Wanting desperately to drown You're the one bright part Of my languid heart You're the love I cannot live without I cannot live without Please hold me close I can't stop shaking It's not for fear My walls are breaking down You're the ocean deep I'm in up to my knees Wanting desperately to drown You're the one bright part Of my languid heart You're the love I cannot live without I can't live without I can't live without You I can't live without You And I cannot live without You, oh Can You hold on? Can You hold on? Can You hold on to me? Because You hold everything, yeah You're the ocean deep I'm in up to my knees Wanting desperately to drown You're the one bright part Of my languid heart You're the love I cannot live without

I can't live without You I can't live without You
