

Beck, I Call You Love

I just found your letter
I feel your sadness worlds apart and no words can say
"I'm sorry"
you're everything that matters and forever I'll know that if you call my name I'll follow
in all my life
no one so real untainted love
with you I can ascend I'll go with you
I go with you
I won't look back
I won't look back
I won't look back
I won't look back
I won't look back
so don't look back
I won't look back
I can call you love
you can call me lover
you can call me love
I can call you lover
let me call you love won't you call me lover won't you please say "love" I'll love you forever
hold out my hand
I call your name
please take me there no, I will not look back
I go with you
I go with you
I go with you
I'll grow with you
I go with you
I go with you
