Let Me Love You

Let me love you, baby, you're driving my poor heart crazy.

Let me love you, baby, you're driving my poor heart crazy.

When I'm with you, woman, my whole life seems so hazy.

Baby, when you walk, you shake just like a willow tree.

Baby, when you walk, you shake just like a willow tree.

And ooh-whee, baby, you sure look so good to me.
