

Beck, Steve Threw Up

Steve had a big commotion the street fair was an ocean when he took three tabs of bad acid and off his melting jaw all the wonderful things he saw the pretty hair growin on...his sandwich well he looked out on the fairground with the spinning things spinning all around and he felt the food goin' down and coming back and on top of the ferris-wheel he threw up on the heel of the beautiful girl who was laughing well there must have been some pizza and there must have been some fries and there must have been some tequila and there must have been some wine and there must have been some falafels and there must have been some beer and there must have been some bagels you could see it all so clear and there must have been some pickles and there must have been some saurkraut and there must have been some catfish when he laid his burden down (?) pineapples, mangos, wild rice, beans, granola, cheetoos, caramel candy popcorn ice cream, banana fudge, and some corndogs, and mayonnaise, steak sauce, ketchup and mustard, garlic, kool-aid, spam and some egg rolls, sushi, rice cakes, oatmeal, cucumbers, biscuits, beef-jerky, pop-tarts, tamales, shish-kabob and a side order of...

BARF!!! BARF!!! RETCH!!! VOMIT!!! SPEW!!! etc...
