

Beck, Why Can't I Believe In You?

One time I knew a pleasure so few
Needless to say, that time has gone away
You were too kind to be so cruel
Why can't I believe in you?

I remember when you were my friend
You eased my mind, but you burned it in the end
Pieces of chain cool in the rain
Why can't I believe in you?

Will you still need me when I get weird?
Give me time when time is drawing near?
What can I say when you're laughing that way?
Why can't I believe in you?