

Beckett, Bruised Feet

It's been a long, long hard day
I thought there is nothing you could say, to take my blues away
Yeah I've been running for too long
And all my feet are bruised
All I can seem to do is lose, lose, lose, lose, lose

And then you come along and you know just what to say
Yeah you come along and you brighten up my day, yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah you, yeah you, I'll do anything that you want me too for you
Yeah I'll bruise my feet for you, yeah I'll bruise my feet for you

Yeah I was wondering why I try with all these dreams when they all seem so far away
But there's nothing i can do, I'm a hopeless dreamer it's true and my faith in me was through

Until you came along and you knew just what to say
Yeah you came along and you brightened up my day, yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah you, yeah you, I'll do anything that you want me too for you
Yeah I'll bruise my feet for you, yeah I'll bruise my feet for you
Yeah you, yeah you, I'll do anything that you want me too for you
Yeah I'll bruise my feet for you, yeah I'll bruise my feet for you
