

Beckett, Lucid Dream

Hello again
I said that we'd be friends until the end
But everything's turned around.

We've been left with different plans
And I'm suppressing all my fears
I don't want any other tears, oh no.

I'll go driving in my car
And I'll drive and drive so far
And I cannot feel my body
It looks as though I'm gonna hurt somebody.

Then you come around
You say I've made a mess of it all
And you're making me feel so small
My life's this lucid dream
And I'm living it on my own
For a minute I thought I was home

And you cared.

I'll go driving in my car
And I'll drive and drive so far
And I cannot feel my body
It looks as though I'm gonna hurt somebody.

I don't wanna hurt nobody
Live life in the country
I'm looking for salvation
In the hope, that it will spread right across this god damn shallow nation
Oh yeah.

In a lucid dream
In a lucid dream
In a lucid dream, nothing's what it seems
In a lucid dream
In a lucid dream.
