

Bed & Breakfast, Love Will Find A Way

Love will find a way
Though I should know better
That nothing lasts forever
Our love will find a way
All my love for you will never die
You broke my heart on a rainy Sunday morning
When you walked out of the door
You didn't even turn around to say Good-bye
And I don't know why
Still I can't get you out of my mind
But nothing will last forever
Every night I'm crying for you
Will I cry forever?
Love will find a way...
We walked hand in hand for an endless summer
We were always together
I was sure that you would be mine forever
Now I don't know why
Still I can't get you out of my mind...
