

Bedouin Soundclash, Hearts In The Night

I'm breaking down but I'm on Hope Road.
If you still love me then let a boy know,
Down empty streets that forgot their names,
Out names forgotten but the love still remains

Walking down past Avenue B
I feel the pressure of the night as it breathes...
... well that's the sound of a heart in the night
Waking so slow in the heat of the moonlight

Deep in the city is a man who sings a song
All night long i hear his voice burning on,
Two lost faces in the seams of the night
That all unravel in the first morning light

Walking down past Avenue B
I feel the pressure of the night as it breathes..

And that's the sound of a heart in the night
Waking so slow in the heat of the moonlight
... well that's the sound of a heart in the night
Waking so slow in the heat of the moonlight
