

Bee Gees, By The Light Of The Burning Candle

You used to smile ev'ry day with me
But now, I don't smile
There's no smile to see

So by the light of the burning candle
I love you , I love you
By the light of the burning candle
I'll cry

You took apart ev'ry thing I had
But you took a heart

And that's twice as bad

So by the light of the burning candle
I will love you , I'll love you
By the light of the burning candle
I'll cry

So by the light of the burning candle
I will love you , I'll love you
By the light of the burning candle
I'll cry
