

Bee Gees, Fallen Angel

Fool in the night on the stair
With the light by the window
Out in the jungle of life she was Yearning to go
All of the years I've been there for the tears
She will sell you
Out in the city she search for the face
That she knew

Did you believe that a love so alive
Could be over

(CHORUS)

Caroline
Fallen Angel
Caroline
Oh oh oh, oh oh oh
oh oh oh oh
Fallen Angel
I'm so lost
Tonight, lonely tonight
Lonely tonight

Fool is the father who clings to the Child he is losing
Mother too weary to question
The wisdom of youth
There with your head in your hand
As you pray to her picture
Out in the rain she would search
For somebody to hold

Did you believe you could find
What you need with a stranger

(CHORUS)

Did you believe that a love so alive
Could be over

(CHORUS)
