

Bee Gees, It Doesn't Matter Much To Me

Hello angel , do you know me ,I'm you man
Would that be hard for you to try and understand
I've been waiting for this day for so so long
Could lovin' you be so so wrong

It doesn't matter much to me
Baby , I been hurt before
Don't you ask me why I'm here
Back and knockin' at your door

Do you remember
Do you remember all the nights
And all the love we went through
Well you know maybe I thought you had some left over
Could I mean that much to you

It doesn't matter much to me
Baby, I been hurt before
Don't you ask me why I'm here
Back and knockin' at your door

Now open up your arms and take me
Make me love you till I die
You wouldn't have me when I was a young man
But tonight I'm gonna try

It doesn't matter much to me
Baby , I been hurt before
Don't you ask me why I'm here
Back and knockin' at your door
