Bee Gees, No Other Heart

(by thorne, lewis & amp; amp; gibb) 1969

Clouds grew grey when you refused to stay, The falling rain joined in with tears upon my chin. I met you, it was a rendezvous, No other heart, I knew could give me love so new.

Years soon came between you and i,

Time passed by, someone else caught your eye. Heavens of clouds up above whizzing by, I look around, you're not to be found.

I could cry with thoughts of your goodbye, Our hearts would always fly as high as ev'ry sky. Now I stand inside an empty land And ev'rywhere I go no sweeter heart I'll know.
