

Before The Dawn, Crush

[music & words: Panu Willman]

I crushed my self fairly well today with no respect needless so say I feel my worries are to stay yes and still you can find some hope in me I wonder

Today it shows the more I know

If I can't see myself too clear if I malfunctioned from this fear will you repair this broken soul yes I am tired take my hand and we rest awhile
