

Before The Dawn, Scar

Needles in my nerves
Nails in my spinal cord
Acid burns inside my veins
Blood creating stains
Limbs with broken bones inside
Tearing my flesh
Penetrating through my skin
I cannot feel a thing

Peeling my skin
Revealing tissues underneath
Taste the blood while I breath
Limbs with broken bones inside
Tearing my Flesh
Penetrating through my skin
I cannot feel a thing

Cant recognise myself
So torn apart
The scars and burning marks
On my skin while the real pain
Hurts deep within
