

Before Today, Enlarge Your Hearts

Clothed by space
We are aware of this
And we can all agree that we are seen by the light
But I'm beat to death
By a well defined problem instead
Conscious we all ignore
Jeweler's eye view
Enlarge your hearts now
Enlarge your hearts and try so hard.
This tragedy, we take as we give
So you'll take a life tonight
In this eve you will ill deserve sun
Distinguish the black from white
The red from brown
Give all to make him see
Truthfulness and validity
Strength
We should give each other strength
When it's all recovered
Strength
We can give into another way to be.
