

Before You Breathe, You Never Fail

How many times do I fall down
Only to have You pick me up
How many ways do I disobey
Only to have You turn me around
You never fail to forgive me
How many times do I hesitate
To give You all of my life
How many ways am I a mistake
Only to have You put things right
You never fail to forgive me
You never fail to forgive me

Unending love, never changing
Unending love, never failing
I fail You
I fail You so much
I need You, Lord
I need You so much
You never fail to forgive me
You never fail, You forgive me
