BeFour, Come Fly With Me

We have ignition its time to go A mission out of here

Youre heart is beating

The lights go out The thrill is in the air

Everything change in a second

And the darkness surrounds you like night

But just in a minute a million of stars comes alive

Come fly with me

Into infinity

Reach for the stars

They never been so close to you

You took a step

Into our fantasy

And we take you to the end of the galaxy

Come fly with me

A journey out of time and space

Can take you anywhere Imagination fascinates,

The magic fills the air

Everything change in a second

And the darkness surrounds you like night

But just in a minute a million of stars comes alive

Come fly with me

Into infinity

Reach for the stars

They never been so close to you

You took a step

Into our fantasy

And we take you to the end of the galaxy

Come fly with me
