

Behexen, Celebration Of Christ'S Fall

And again is the easter night celebration of victory and absence year by year my heart delights the death of semitic Christ

Gather the congregation of darkness witches and worshippers of grand evil in the cradle of gloominess we rise the overflowing chalice

In this night we embrace the ways of the flesh and the wisdom of the serpent!

Celebration of Christ's Fall!

Rise! Rise up from the depths the beings of the night to celebrate with us
All evil spirits rise!
Rise from this magic ring to honour the true God God of all sorcerers, SATAN!!!
