

Behind Crimson Eyes, Sometimes Forever Means

[Verse 1:]

You never, would take no for an answer
Your smile like cancer
I'm always, there for you but
You only ever take what's mine

[Chorus 1:]

Was there something I said
That could make you feel this way
And make me feel like my world's not turning
Is there something I should do
Should I stay the fuck away from you
You're breaking away

[Verse 2:]

Leave today, take with you
Every memory along with every
Mistake I, made for you
It's all over, our lives have torn in two

[Bridge:]

Why do you care?
I don't understand
I can't justify all those lies
I can't go on living this way
It's not a game... and I'm not ok.
