

Behind Enemy Lines, The Politics Of Hunger

We've caused millions to starve just to try and achieve special interest objectives Inflicting economic ruin and mass starvation for political leverage
We'll let them chew on our resolutions
We'll force-feed them our biased conditions
We'll watch them choke on our economic sanctions
while they starve
We've gotten fat on our power, our arrogant ability to stamp out life
Using food as a weapon, victimizing civilians who, we know, pay the price
We'll let them chew on our resolutions
We'll force-feed them our biased conditions
We'll watch them choke on our economic sanctions
while they starve
We rule this world with an iron fist but that's the hand that feeds you until you won't comply with the new world order then we're the hand that bleeds you Bow down to our nation or face starvation, we back up our threats
We have no regrets, restricting your ability to fill your own stomachs
We'll let them chew on our resolutions
We'll force-feed them our biased conditions
We'll watch them choke on our economic sanctions
while they starve
Millions have died and it accomplished nothing
We let it happen and it accomplished nothing
