

Beholder, The Fallen Kingdom

Friend, look at the sky, winds of storm, dark clouds of war
And now, remember him, our mighty king, he died yesterday

[BRIDGE:]

He was a symbol of faith, he fought for peace and glory
Lord, many battles he won, many lands he gained

[CHORUS:]

But now, we are alone, no one could make us win today
King, protect our souls, enemies are coming

[SOLO - Matt Treasure]

Silence comes over the field, dead warriors' blood on the ground (and I pray)
Enemies sing for the victory, no one's left of us all (and I pray)

There will be the time for a revenge, the fallen kingdom will rise again
We will live in a peaceful reign, no more tears we will shed

[BRIDGE - CHORUS]
