

Beholder, Wish for Destruction

Watch the results of your tests, men, are you ready?

Reproduce thousands of perfect samples and Guide your army, guide all your slaves

To impose your power on the whole world
Carry out your secret plans and you'll become the only ruler

Secrets of life are in your hands, now make your choice
Your mind is looking for power, prepare to Gain control on fucking human race

There's no way out, no one will escape, no more!
You'll be the new government and all the laws will be in your hands

Play your game, until human race is under your control
You're the ones that will lead the world to final destruction
Don't lose your soul
'Cause your time is too short!

Doctors are testing the clones
Don't you see it?
Your men are stronger than you really thought
And they are ready to do what you say

There's no reason to waste your time anymore
Start the operations and the no-men will fulfil the mission

They will look like human people
Slave to the power
Soon they will follow your orders
And you will see the world change, see your no-men rule

Time to be the new leaders of human race
Seven gods without any fear, all the power's in their hands

Play your game, until human race is under your control
You're the ones that will lead the world to final destruction
Don't lose your soul
'Cause your time is too short!
