

Beirut, Gibraltar

Everything should be fine
You'll find things tend to stand in line
It's (?) a link in time
But I'm sure you'll let me try

No one is sitting on fire
So long we're waiting on side
Who laid a line?
Say you're like my kind

You loved the times
I sang your lust was mine
Who laid a line?
Say you're like my kind
You loved the times
I sang your lust was mine

In your mind
In your mind
In your mind
I will
In your mind
/2x

No one is sitting on fire
So long we're waiting on side
Who laid a line?
Say you're like my kind

You loved the times
I sang your lust was mine
Who laid a line?
Say you're like my kind
You loved the times
I sang your lust was mine
