Fishers of Men

Jesus was walking beside the waters at the Sea of Galilee

He saw two brothers were casting their nets and He said,

"Come and follow Me";

They didn't tell Him, "We'll do it tomorrow"; They didn't ask Him "why?";

They didn't save up enough to fall back on; They didn't say "We'll try.";

They dropped it all! To answer to His call! Jesus was there. This was their prayer...

Chorus

Guide me safely through the Storm, let me walk upon the water.

Show me where to cast my nets and keep me focused on the Father.

Let me catch a million fish for you.

I want to be - a fisher of men; Oh, let us be - fishers of men.

He never said it'd be easy; In fact the opposite's true.

He said that people would hunt us and hate us and misunderstand us, too.

But, what a wonderful feeling; With Jesus Christ to serve!

To spread the hope, and the love, and the peace of salvation we don't deserve.

I'll drop it all! To answer His call! He's waiting there. This is my prayer...

Chorus

Give me the heart of a servant; Humbly I seek the truth.

Hold me the hands of a master; I give my life to you!

I dropped it all! Answer you call! You're waiting there. this is my prayer...
