

Belinda Carlisle, Love Walks In

Touch some holy water
Confess your sins again
Cross yourself with imperfection
Break the rules--amend
Pick up the pieces
Hold them tight
now you feel redeemed
Try to take a step outside
Do what you disbelieve

Chorus:
Love walks in
Looking so devout
Love walks in
You walk out

Build a shrine, break down a wall
Run till you can't stop
On your knees inside your head
Your sanctuary now

Repeat Chorus

I don't know what you want
I don't know what you need
Tell me what you want
Speak to me, speak to me

Tangled up in disillusion
Swept up in the flood
Drowning in uncertainty
No message from above

Repeat Chorus

Love walks in
Your world starts to fall apart
Love walks in
You walk out
