Belinda Carlisle, Nobody Owns Me

Nobody owns me I don't wanna be anybody's fool No one can make me do What I don't want to do - no, no Nobody owns me Nobody but you

I'm gonna follow my heart Wherever it leads oooh I'm not afraid of my destiny - oooh There's another point of view It takes me back to you

I wanna dream my dreams And live them too - oooh Do a million things before I'm though - oooh There's another side of me That only you can see
