

Belinda Carlisle, World Of Love

Underneath the endless sky
I have my peace of mind.
I can see
For miles and miles
I hear my heartbeat echo
I feel the colors flowing over me.

CHORUS:

World of love,
It only happens in a world of love,
Can you feel it?
so divine, I'll make my own.
World of love
Everything changes in a world of love
So surreal, I believe the way I feel.

Do you believe in destiny?
Ooh it will set you free.
Everything starts with a kiss,
No thought of tomorrow,
Right now is just a place for you and me.

CHORUS

A trip through wonderland,
Will make you understand,
All you need harmony ooh

CHORUS
