

Bell Book and Candle, Back in my dreams

I get you back - you're my babe give into faith - I believe in mine you are my favourite disaster you are my precious escape to life it's all there to discover the secrets of each other a view behind the cover shows my aspiration who are they - laying hands on you I want you back in my dreams only to feel you
who are they - laying hands on you
only to be with you I'm trying hard every day you seem to know, that it's much too late I rest my head on your shoulder you say, I'm giving no grace to you be there to rediscover the wishes of the other a look behind the cover opening a new world who are they ...
