

Bell Book and Candle, I'm gonna make you mine

You said, you love me and all I did was to believe, that it's true today I know, we belong together what a waste of time, before I knew I'm gonna make you mine
you were made for me, but I was blind
I can see a miracle happening to me
I'm gonna make you mine
and so we're losing sight of each other we're leading our separate lives I thought, I knew you in a thousand ways, but suddenly the scales fell from my eyes
I'm gonna make you mine ...
