

Bell Book and Candle, In the witchin hour

In the witchin' hour I will call your name I'm driving you insane
I knew what you're missing now you're doing what I want you to do oh, no sugar listen I don't wanna be treated like your fool the game goes on and on see, I can do you wrong
if I want to
I'll be a part of your mistory sometimes you're confusing me like a witch you drive me insane
in the witchin' hour I will call your name
I'm driving you insane
I'll make you see
the witch - it's me
in the witchin' hour I will call your name I'm driving you insane
I'll make you see
the witch - it's me
you're calling my name cause I'm the only one that you're thinking of and you control my brain I feel that I'm still in love - with you
the game goes on and on
see, I can do you wrong
if I want to
like a witch you drive me insane in the witchin' hour ...
