

Bella Morte, Fall No More

Bella Morte
Miscellaneous
Fall No More

Find the end, let us start again
Feelings lost now surge as oceans
So grey she rises to the world
And her name shattered years ago
Scattered with the northern snow
Fragments hidden well within our minds

Til the rains fall no more
Til the nights no longer find us here alone
Til the rains fall no more
Til the night no longer finds us here alone

In death's eyes sorrow lingered once
Seeing her life torn apart
The shackles fell to see her free to walk the earth
In her eyes life is present still
Through the day I watch her sleeping
I hold her close forever more

(Chorus)
