BELLAMY BROTHERS, Old Hippie

Bellamy Brothers
Miscellaneous
Old Hippie
He turned thirty-five last Sunday
In his hair he found some gray
But he still ain't changed his lifestyle
He likes it better the old way
So he grows a little garden in the back yard by the fence
He's consuming what he's growing nowadays in self defense
He get's out there in the twilight zone sometimes when it just don't make no sense

He gets offo n country music cause disco left him cold
He's got young friends into new wave buts he's just too damn old
And he dreams at night of Woodstock and the day John Lennon died how the music made him happy and the silence made him cry
Yea he thinks of John sometimes and he has to wonder why

== Chorus ==

He's an old hippie and he don't know what to do should hang on to the old should he grab on to the new he's an old hippie his new life is just a bust he ain't trying to change nobody he just trying real hard to adjust

He was sure back in the sixties that everyone was hip
Then they sent him off to Vietnam on his senior trip
And they force him to become a man while he was still a boy and in each wave of tragedy he waited for the joy
Now this world may change around him but he just can't change nomore

== Chorus ==

Well he stays away a lot now from the parties and the clubs
And he's thinking while he's joggin' 'round
Sure is glad he quit the hard drugs
Cause him and his kind get more endangered everyday
And pretty soon the species will just up and fade away
Like the smoke from that torpedo just up and fade away
