On the beach with all my friends just singin' dancin' watchin' all the chicos walkin' by someone yelled party here tonight When I turned someone was standing there before me he had brown skin and jet black hair and he asked would I be here tonight

With a smile I looked straight at him And I could feel his latin melody When he spoke I heard the rythm of a spanish guitar he touched my had I felt so free and then he said these words to me

refrein:

Venga mamacita
I don't know why girl you make me high I can't lie latina girl lookin' shy
Venga mamacita
I can't deny in your big brown eyes

Venga mamacita
