

Belle's Wake, Penelope

Bold, you walked through the fire
Without warning
You came tumbling down

Did your eyes catch a glimpse
When did we run aground
Are we still spinning around
Each other again?

And every night I'm alone
But your ghost still follows me home
Leave me be, just let me believe
You're here to stay
Stronger winds took you away
Make your peace
And stop haunting me

Brave, you sail through the fog
Still searching
Can my heart carry on?

You're all that I had
Stealing away
The sun surrendered the day
As you carried me

Late, as the sea rolls away
I'll stand here,
I'll stand and I'll wave

And wander the night
Searching for you
Oh my love
You're lost in me

And every night I'm alone
But your ghost still follows me home
Leave me be, just let me believe
You're here to stay
Stronger winds took you away
Make your peace
And stop haunting me

As the sea rolls away
I'll stand here
I'll stand and I'll wave
