

Bellefire, Spin The Wheel

Bellefire
Spin The Wheel
Spin The Wheel
It's a difficult choice to make
It's a dangerous chance to take
And with every touch you stake
Comes a radical new

Awakening to everything
You thought you'd never taste

Chorus:
Spin the wheel
Turn your love around
Get down
Down on your knees
And show me that you're not afraid to lose
Cold cold steel
Melts into the ground
At the sound
Of you begging please
You're telling me you're ready to choose

It's a dangerous game to play
And a terrible thing to say
That this beautiful thing can stay
That it's destined to die and

Fade away like yesterday
A moment gone to waste

Spin the wheel
Turn your love around
Get down
Down on your knees
And show me that you're not afraid to lose
Cold cold steel
Melts into the ground
At the sound
Of you begging please
You're telling me you're ready to choose

Ooh, take a picture of this
As you lay in your bed
Making a list
Of the cruel things you said
To scare your love away

Oh, oh, oh...
Spin the wheel (wheel)
Turn your love around (turn your love around)
Get down (get down)
Down on your knees
And show me that you're (show me)
Not afraid to lose
(Show me that you're not afraid)
Cold cold steel
Melts into the ground (melts into the ground)
At the sound
Of you begging please
(At the sound of you begging)
You're telling me you're ready
You're ready

To spin the wheel
