Bellx1, Slowset

So I asked her to dance She said she wasn't able And all her friends laughed She was just trying to be gentle And so we danced Round and round in circles Not of that love song But our very own circles Slowset is dead No more love on the dance floor Unless you're out of your head That's all that we went for So she asked me to dance I did but I wasn't able Oh where to put your hands When there's so much food on the table Slowset is dead No more love on the dance floor Unless you're out of your head That's all that we went for What do you say When she's in your arms And you're going round in those circles When both of you know That you've risen to the occasion When her friend comes along And you know that she's been rescued When you're eternal flame Has been drowned by her Purple rain Slowset is dead No more love on the dance floor Unless you're out of your head That's all that we went for That's all
