

Belly, Better Believe (ft. The Weeknd, Young Thug)

I stay up fighting my demons
I don't got no one to lean on
I'm busy puttin' my team on
Hitters pull up with the beamer
I put that girl in a P1
She make a mess and she clean up
She call up her friend named Tina
I turned that shit to a
Fuck with my name can be ...
None of my niggas is stable
They turned a crown to a halo
They rode through the town like it's Halo
But don't make a move till i say so
Drop a few hits when i lay low
Ever since i been single
A side chick wanna be main chick
She know i am make her famous
Ever since i been single
A side chick wanna be main chick
Dodge her call like the Matrix
Dodge her call like

Steady on top
Better believr
They keep praying on my fall
Y'all better believe
I just watched my opps team up
