

Belvedere, Bad Decisions

(There's no excuse) And that's the reason why I feel (Angry, confused) Angry and confused, why would you
Kill a man, you realize
(You've loaded that gun before)

You'll never understand why it's so hard
To have compassion for you
I'll never comprehend why there's a system
That's misleading and untrue
A system that's misleading and untrue

Someone send out a message to justice, 'cause
I'm calling out it's name
I never had to think about it
If you were here, I could almost picture
The expression on your face
They always find a way around it

(You waved away) Responsibility, you never (Dug his grave) Took it seriously
And now he's dead, but you're still here
Sometimes life just isn't fair

I'll never comprehend why there's a system
That's misleading and untrue
A system that's misleading and untrue

It seems absurd, he's off scott free
Instead of life he gets a year to three
It's not rectified it's the same fucking thing to me
