

Belvedere, Male Pattern Impotence

it tries so hard, i'll give it that, it's painful to watch i grease the bear the gumption's there but the job's always botched what's it now i just don't know the fun has disappeared what's the deal i get the fuel but it still seems weird

no confidence
it don't make sense

here's a scence try to avoid, join me if you will it's going smooth, i'm having fun but something kills i'm not dumb, i figure out it's male impotence i don't know just where it starts, it makes no sense

no confidence

why this now i don't know how
